*[Both Riverhead and Southampton had problems with Peconic River bridges about this time. The following excerpts are from the Southampton Town Records, IV: (Town Meeting 6 April 1869 [misprinted "1868", see same record p. 310.]) "Resolved, that the Commissioners of Highways be instructed to inquire into the cause of the destruction or damage to the bridge belonging to the town of Riverhead, the 1st of April, 1867, and to report at next Town Meeting." (p. 309.) (Town Meeting 5 April 1870.) "Resolved, that the Supervisor be directed to inquire into the cause of the destruction of the bridge at Riverhead." (p. 323) In connection with the preceding, note that Riverhead paid for "1/2" of a bridge in or about January 1869 (Liber C, p. 81).]
